Nashua Symphony partners with BAE Systems for "Bring a Veteran for free" program

(Nashua, NH) Freedom may not be free, but if you're a veteran of the U.S. Armed Forces, attending the symphony is.

For the third year in a row, the Nashua Symphony Association is partnering with BAE Systems for a special promotion designed to thank veterans for their service to the country. With BAE Systems's support, a limited number of tickets will be made available to veterans (and active-duty personnel) for the November 22 performance featuring the Nashua Symphony Orchestra & Chorus.

The performance celebrates composer Felix Mendelssohn's 200th birthday and begins at 8 pm in Nashua's Keefe Memorial Auditorium. Jonathan McPhee, the NSA's new Music Director and Principal Conductor will lead works by Mendelssohn, Johann Sebastian Bach, and Franz Schubert. NSA Director of Choral Activities Diane Cushing will conduct works by Georg Phillip Telemann and W.A. Mozart.

For several years now, BAE Systems has supported a fall symphony concert in this way. "This is a great partnership," notes NSA Executive Director Eric Valliere, "because BAE Systems's target community has access to this wonderful music, and the NSA gets to reach out to a broader audience."
